Our Mission? PRESERVATION of all Civil War Battlefields

Less than a dozen met for our 14th Annual Civil War Recipe Pot Luck evening in December. Great food, great people and a great evening by all. Lots of conversation, discussions, even phone numbers and email addresses exchanged. Food? Probably the main dish was:

EVERY bit of each buffalo was used!!!

Thanks Stoney.

Much of the evening was spent on Meeting Locations. The Senior Center (remodeled) has increased their prices, the Legion was not up to par, the Historical Society has it all but cannot assure us a specific evening for future meetings. So it has been decided to return to the pretty good Senior Center for the time being. More discussion will take place.

January's Presenter, Karl Fredrickson, amongst other things is known for his excellent storytelling abilities. He will tell about MN 9th Infantry in Mississippi i.e. Brice's Crossroads and Tupelo. 1864. He always keeps every member glued to the presentation. He will on the 17th too. Come early.

The solar lights on my Double Barrel Canon are doing their job - finally. Photos taken on January 8, 2019:

Thanks to everyone who helped with this two year - still not done but fun project.

Special reading or information for Civil War buffs:

"The most famous of the dozens of young drummer boys was Johnny Clem of Newark, Ohio. He went to war at the age of ten. In Clem's first battle, a shell fragment ripped his drum apart. He became known as "Johnny Shiloh." Gallantry in action two years later brought him promotion to sergeant. Clem made the army a career, and he retired in 1916 with the rank of major general."
